Doglaw Seminar Programme

Solicitor Trevor Cooper is offering seminars to rescues to guide you through this challenging area of law.

The law on dogs has recently undergone huge changes. It's more important than ever before that dog rescues have at least a working knowledge of the main laws that could effect them.

The seminar (running time approx. 2 hours) will cover:-

- The Microchipping of Dogs Regulations & Collar/Tag
- The law of ownership
- Dangerous Dogs Act 1991
 - Dogs Dangerously out of control
 - Breed Specific Legislation
- Community Protection Notices & Public Spaces Protection Orders under the Anti-social Behaviour Crime and Policing Act 2014
- The law on strays
- Noise nuisance
- Damages claims

The Presenter

Trevor Cooper

Trevor is widely regarded as a leading Solicitor in England and Wales who specialises in the law on dogs as he has 23 years experience in this niche area of law. Trevor currently splits his time between acting as the Doglaw Consultant for Battersea Dogs & Cats Home as well as continuing to represent dog owners in both criminal and civil matters. He maintains the website www.doglaw.co.uk and is regularly in demand for lectures and media interviews.

Who should attend?

This seminar will particularly appeal to managers and staff who work at dog rescues. No prior knowledge is necessary. If you choose to book a seminar then we are happy for you to invite your volunteers and trustees. The cost per seminar is a fixed fee of £500 plus VAT.
