

The way it works, is that you:-

- Provide the venue, which will accommodate at least 50 people
- Provide tea/coffee for when people arrive and at a break half way through
- Promote the seminar to your members and others locally

We will:-

- Charge attendees £20 each and pay your Club £5 for each paid attendee
- Provide you with full colour information leaflets/booking forms for you to distribute
- Provide you with a pdf of the information leaflet/booking form for you to promote by email
- Advertise your seminar on Cooper & Co Solicitors website

The feedback we've had from the seminars that we've run over the last year has been excellent and most people find that they've been both informed and entertained.

Questions and Answers

The seminar is expected to last up to three hours.

Presented by Trevor Cooper of Cooper & Co Solicitors. Trevor has been qualified as a Solicitor for 23 years and is widely regarded as the leading Solicitor in England & Wales who specialises in criminal law on dogs.

Trevor started his career in local government and has acted for both the prosecution (having been a Principal Solicitor with the Environment Agency for 5 years) as well as the defence. Trevor currently splits his time between acting as a Consultant for Dogs Trust in London and continuing to act in dog cases in both criminal and civil matters throughout England and Wales.

Trevor maintains the website www.doglaw.co.uk and is regularly in demand for lectures and media interviews.

“He is the pets’ saviour, St Francis of Assisi of the law courts, defender of dogs” - The Sunday Telegraph

“In UK Canine circles Cooper’s name is legendary. He has probably saved more dogs from ‘Death Row’ than any other lawyer and is the hero of dog lovers everywhere” - The Lawyer

“For anyone who has ever found themselves in legal trouble because of their dog, the only name that comes to mind for help is Solicitor Trevor Cooper”

- Carolyn Menteith – Dogs Today Magazine

“All dog owners should be thankful for having such a champion”
- Dog World
